 THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF ILLINOIS

CASE NO. 00CF 1741
 OFFENSE Possession of Firearms

Date of Birth: 7/7/

Class B

4/11/01

INTENSIVE SUPERVISION COURT ORDER OF PROBATION

Date: 4/11/01 People represented
 a. Defendant present in open Court and represented by counsel D. Grounds. It is the finding of the court that the by Assistant State's Attorney R. Wilson above named defendant has been adjudged guilty of the offense of Possession of a Firearm. The application for probation comes on for hearing. Evidence presented. The Court finds that it is not prohibited by law nor by the nature and circumstance of the offense, or the history, character and condition of the offender from imposing a sentence of probation. However, the court is of the opinion that regular probation supervision would not provide the necessary protection of the public, would deprecate the seriousness of the offender's conduct, and would be inconsistent with the ends of justice.

b. The probation department has a space available in a specialized program of intensive Probation Supervision to supervise this offender who would otherwise be sentenced to confinement in the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Therefore, it is the sentence and order of the court that the above named defendant be sentenced to probation for a term of 30 days MONTHS from the date hereof; subject, however, during the full period of such probation, to be under the jurisdiction of the court. Said sentence to probation shall be upon the following terms and conditions:

1. That the defendant shall report to and abide by the instructions set down by the probation department and probation officer(s).
2. That the defendant shall not violate any criminal statute of any jurisdiction.
3. That the defendant shall refrain from possessing a firearm or other dangerous weapon.
4. That said defendant shall obtain advance authorization from his probation officer before proceeding more than 50 miles beyond Madison County, Illinois, unless otherwise ordered by the court.
5. That the defendant shall permit the probation officer to visit the defendant at his home or elsewhere to the extent necessary to discharge the officer's duties.
6. That the defendant successfully complete the first year of probation under the rules, regulations and policies of Intensive Probation Supervision. The specific rules and regulations of Intensive Probation Supervision are:
  - a. Work faithfully at suitable employment insofar as may be possible.
  - b. Do not change present place of residence, leave the state for any time without prior permission of the probation officer.
  - c. Support legal dependents to the best of your ability.
  - d. Submit to breath, urine and/or blood specimen for analysis for the possible presence of a prohibited drug or alcohol by the probation officer when requested.
  - e. Submit to searches of your person, residence, papers, automobile and/or effects at any time such requests are made by the probation officer when there is reasonable suspicion to require it, and consent to the use of anything seized as evidence in a court proceeding.
  - f. Attend and participate in such counseling, treatment or educational programs as may be directed by the officer(s) of the probation department and abide by all rules, regulations, directions and successfully complete any such program.
  - g. Perform a minimum of 10 hours of community service as directed by the officers of the probation department and abide by all rules, regulations and directions of any such program.
  - h. Comply with the curfew established by the officers of the probation department.
  - i. Cooperate with and maintain truthful, accurate and sufficient communications with officers of the probation department.
  - j. Immediately contact your Probation Officer of any arrest or contact with any law enforcement agency.
7. That said defendant shall pay a fine of $_____, court costs of $_____, restitution of $_____, and probation service fee of $25.00 per month pursuant to the statute and General Administrative Order, payable through the Clerk of the Court by:
  (1) Application of Bail. DRG
 (2) Prior to the final 30 days of probation unless otherwise directed by the Court.
8. Other special conditions: _____

It is The Further Order Of the Court, and the defendant is hereby advised, that the court may at any time during the said period of probation revoke or modify any conditions of said probation or reduce the period of said probation or may discharge the defendant from probation, as provided by law. The defendant shall be subject to arrest for any alleged violation of any condition of said probation. If such probation is revoked, the court may impose any other sentence that is permitted as prescribed by law.

This 11 day of April, 2001.

JUDGE

CERTIFICATION OF SERVICE - I hereby acknowledge that I have received a copy of this Sentence of Probation and fully understand the rules and provisions contained herein. I further understand and acknowledge that I can be resentenced on the original offense should my Sentence of Probation be revoked by the court for a violation of any of the conditions of said probation.
